Dear Governance Executive,

The Institute for International Research (IIR) is proud to present its 2009 Corporate Governance Forum. This premier event will provide you with the latest and most up-to-date developments and changes affecting corporate governance practices. In addition to the expert presentations offering you a look into implications of the financial volatility on governance practices, you will have the opportunity to discuss and debate the King III report in the full day pre-conference discussion forum.

To what extent are your governance practices in-line with the Companies Bill and King III, which are soon to be promulgated and officially legislated?

At IIR it has always been our aim to bring you the latest corporate, strategic developments and concepts. With this in mind, Corporate Governance Forum will offer you the opportunity to ensure that you have comprehensive understanding of recent regulatory changes affecting governance practices, Directors, Company Secretaries, as well as other contentious issues. We pride ourselves on research conducted with market experts, past delegates as well as movers and shakers in the industry so you are guaranteed to get the latest information impacting your role and industry as a whole.

This premier event will host an array of expert speakers and industry leaders that will bring forth and evaluate the changes in the corporate regulatory sphere in South Africa. This conference is a key meeting place for Africa's governance decision makers, industry leaders and innovators and will keep you updated on all issues affecting governance.

Ensure that you do not miss this unique opportunity to share knowledge and gain innovative methods which will assist you in improving your company's governance practices.

I look forward to welcoming you to the event in July 2009

Kind Regards,

Brigitte Movius
